Class Motto : "Rejoice! We have Conquered."

Class Poem, '99.

MATHER C. HOWE, A. B.

Fellow class-mates, gathered here,
Bid farewell to school days dear.
Face the future, bright or drear,
 From its hidden sources.
Onward lies life's varied way ;
Hopes and fears in thick array,
Skies of blue and skies of gray
 Bend above our courses.

Though we miss the meed of praise ;
Though we pass toil-weary days,
Though no touch of laurel bays
 Soothe our tired brows' throbbing.
Though we strive in vain for truth ;
Error bring us bitter ruth ;
Though the laughter of our youth
 Change itself for sobbing :

If we help one struggling soul,
Striving onward toward its goal,
Back the mists of sin to roll,
 Ignorance to banish :
If we lift one life to light,
Toiling upward in its night,
Bring one darkened soul to sight,
 Sorrow then shall vanish.

Face the future, fearless, free,
Seeking opportunity,
Though in our own lives we see
 Trouble and disaster ;
Till our earthly course is run,
Till the great reward is won,
Till we hear the glad "Well done,"
 Of our loving Master.
